THE MERRIMAN SMITH MEMORIAL FUND

THE MERRIMAN SMITH AWARD

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Merriman Smith Memorial fund is pleased to announce competition for awards in presidential news coverage. The prizes for 2012 of $2,500 each will be awarded in two categories.

PRINT Newspaper, wire service, magazine
BROADCAST Radio and television

The awards will be presented at the White House Correspondents' Association annual dinner, to be held at the Washington Hilton Hotel, Washington, DC, on Saturday, April 28, 2012.

The fund was organized in 1970 in memory of the late Merriman Smith of United Press International, a White House correspondent for more than 30 years. The award was conceived to perpetuate Mr. Smith's memory and to promote the excellence he brought to his profession.

The 2012 awards will be based on the following criteria:

A single story written, dictated or broadcast under deadline pressure.

The story must have emanated from coverage of the presidency, either in the United States or abroad, by a correspondent at the scene. Any subject of news interest (political, diplomatic, scientific, economic, social, security, appointments, any foreign or domestic matter) which developed in the course of presidential news coverage, will be considered.

A nominee must have been based in the Washington area and must have been on permanent or temporary assignment covering the presidency.

Four factors will be assessed in the judging of a story: accuracy, speed, objectivity, and initiative.

Correspondents employed by any recognized news organization are eligible to enter.
